

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dilek SAHIN, Professor, Maternal- Fetal Medicine Specialist

She graduated from Hacettepe University Faculty of Medicine in 1993. She had residency training in Obstetrics and Gynecology in the same university. She is specialized in the care of women with medical problems in pregnancy and prenatal diagnosis. As part of maternal-fetal medicine team, Dr. Sahin's primary focus is ultrasonography and prenatal diagnosis. She specialises in cases where the baby has a structural anomaly, a genetic condition or when the baby's growth is poor (fetal growth restriction) and multiple pregnancies.

Professor Sahin offers a range of diagnostic and therapeutic services in division of perinatology. She has more than 20 years of experience caring for women who has high risk pregnancy.

Professor Sahin has been involved in many clinical studies. Her clinical research goal is improving the outcomes for women and their babies following complicated pregnancies. She has more than 100 publications in international journals.